

20:30

... 0.00K/s 4G VoLTE 12%

THE NEW INDIAN EXPRESSTHE NEW INDIA

7:28

news websites. As per the report, the government was unhappy with Raju over the incident related to West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee during the swearing-in ceremony of Kumaraswamy. During the event, Mamata had to walk from near General Post Office to Vidhana Soudha and had pulled up the DG&IGP for not allowing her vehicle close to Vidhana Soudha. Kumaraswa-evening.

However, the state government and sources in DG&IGP's office have dismissed the reports. Kumaraswamy, who was alleged to have transferred the official, said he had taken no administrative decision before the floor test on Friday. Sources in the DG&IGP office have also dismissed the issue, saying that the Home Department had issued no such orders yet.

Two companies supplying water sans BIS mark raided

ENS@Bengaluru

THE Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS) Bengaluru branch conducted search and seizure operations on the premises of two companies in the city this week and found these companies supplying drinking water in 20 litre jars without the proper certifications from BIS. Raids were carried out at the offices of MM Nandhini which sells drinking water under the 'MM New Nandhini' and 'Aqualine' brands as well as the offices of RK Minerals which supplies water under the 'Aqua Cento' brand.

The BIS will now initiate action against the company under sections of the BIS act. The BIS asked public to register complaints against violation of quality control or misuse of the ISI mark with the BIS by emailing bnbo@bis.gov.in or by facsimile to 080 28398841. "The source of such information will be kept strictly confidential."